KENTUCKY FEUD BREAKS OUT ANEW

EX-SHERIFF CALLAHAN A FA-MOUS FEUDIST SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Special to the Eagle.
Jackson, Ky., June 8.—Ex-Sheriff Edward Callahan, famous throughout this section of the state for the part he played in the numerous feuds that disrupted Breathitt county for years, was shot from ambush early yesterday, and it is believed was fatally wounded, at his home in Crockett-ville, 16 miles from Jackson.

Callahan swept out his store preparatory to opening for the day and was brushing the refuse from the front door when the shot was fired.
The ball took effect in the left side of his abdomen. Two doctors left early for Crockettville, the request for them being very urgent.

Bloodhounds have been put on the trail of the assassin, who it is believed, hid behind a pile of coal to fire the shot. Excitement in this region is intense over the shooting.

GOULDS HAUNTED BY DIVORCES

Many Hidden Shoals in Domestic Stream of this Wealthy Family.

Special to the Eagle.
New York, June 8.—Was there an inherited curse in the millions left by Jay Gould, "the Wizard of Wall St?" It would certainly seem so from the amount of notoriety and domestic trouble in which the most of his children have shared since his death.

A year ago this month the family skeleton was rattling its grisly bones in a French divorce court, where the Countess de Castellane, formerly Anna Gould, was suing for separation from her titled husband.

About the time that the courts released the Countess de Castellane from her husband for good and all—leaving her free to marry the notorious Prince Helle de Sagan a few months later—the family infelicities of the Frank Goulds were being aired in the New York press. As in the case of the youngest daughter, Anna, the trouble of the youngest son, Frank culminated in divorce. The decree was granted his wife, who was Miss Helen Kelly, two weeks ago.

And now, when the ink has scarcely had time to dry on the papers in the Frank Gould case, comes the separation suit brought by Mrs. Katherine Clemmons Gould against Howard Gould, and the latter's countersuit for a divorce. The case was called for hearing today before Justice Gerard in Part 3, Special term, and it is expected the trial will take place without further delay. It will not be a jury trial. Most of the testimony will be offered in the form of depositions taken on both sides.

SAVED BY MRS. TAFT.

Death Sentence Commuted to Life Imprisonment.

Special to the Eagle.
Washington, June 8.—Mrs. Taft has saved the life of a man named Pero-vich, convicted of murder in the first degree, at Fairbanks, Alaska, and sentenced to be hanged. President Taft was not inclined to interfere in the case and the law would probably have taken its course, had he not submitted the papers to Mrs. Taft. She had read them, and touched by their contents added her plea for a commutation of sentence.

BIG BALLOON RACE ENDED

Sky Cleavers Were Brought Southward by Air Current.

Special to the Eagle.
Indianapolis, June 8.—A special to the Eagle from Green Brier, Tenn., says the balloon Hoosier came down there yesterday morning. A message from Capt. Baldwin says he made a safe landing.

Eight of the nine balloons that started in the races here on Saturday have now been heard from but no word has been received from the St. Louis III, with Albert Bond Lamber and H. R.
Honewell of St. Louis, on board.

Corinth, Miss. June 8.—The balloon New York came down yesterday morning three miles north of here. She passed over Birmingham last night.
The wind changed about midnight and the balloon went due north. The aronauts stated they could have stayed up 24 hours longer.

Birmingham, June 8.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning a balloon passed east of the city of Birmingham at a very high altitude going due south.
Notwithstanding the bright moonlight the lights of the balloon were plainly visible.
